

BENJAMIN PROSTINE

250 Baldwin St.
Athens, Georgia 30602
319-269-6580
benjamin.prostine@uga.edu

EDUCATION

PhD Student	University of Georgia, History Environmental Ethics Certificate Program	2022- 2023-
BA	University of Iowa, History Graduated with Honors and High Distinction Minored in English	2007-2011

PUBLICATIONS

Journalism Publications (partial)

“Review: Automation and the Future of Work,” La Crosse Independent. November 22, 2020.

“‘I Didn’t Come Here on a Death Sentence’: COVID-19 Comes to Wisconsin’s Prisons,” La Crosse Independent. October 30, 2020.

“Policing Ginseng in an Age of Global Markets and Global Warming,” La Crosse Independent. October 4, 2020.

“Labor Day: Remembering, Revising and Reclaiming the Holiday,” La Crosse Independent. September 7, 2020.

“If You Build it They Will Come: the Vernon County Jail and Mass Incarceration in Wisconsin,” La Crosse Independent. August 21, 2020.

“Revolutionary Hope Along the Mississippi: Kenneth Rexroth’s ‘The Motto on the Sundial,’” La Crosse Independent. August 8, 2020.

“Prisoners in the Dairyland,” La Crosse Independent. July 25, 2020.

“Plowshares and Prison Bars: Southwest Wisconsin’s Black Settler Communities,” La Crosse Independent. June 15, 2020.

“Searching for the Meaning of Iowa: Word Roots, Prairie Roots,” Patch Cedar Falls, February 2012.

Radio/ Podcasts

Wisconsin Prison Voices, Podcast/ radio program Two episodes 2021-2022
Co-host, writer, and production editor. In collaboration with the Incarcerated Workers Organizing Committee (Milwaukee branch).

Poems Aloud, WDRT Viroqua, WI Five episodes 2019-2020
Host, writer, and production editor. Thirty minute to one hour program exploring history and politics through poetry and song.

Poetry (overview)

Since 2018, poems have appeared in three anthologies (The New Farmer's Almanac [2021 and 2023] and Contours: A Literary Landscape), a chapbook-zine (In This Ridgetop Common Wind), and the following journals: Midwest Review, New Verse News, Blue Collar Review, and The Solitary Plover.

FELLOWSHIPS, HONORS, AND AWARDS

William Jennings Bryan Award , Best History Paper of the Year, University of Georgia Department of History	2024
Willson Center Graduate Research Award , University of Georgia	2024
History Department Travel Grant , University of Georgia	2024
History Department Travel Grant , University of Georgia	2023
Presidential Graduate Fellowship Award , University of Georgia	2022-2026
Graduate Teaching Assistantship , University of Georgia	2022-2025
W.E. Wolters Scholarship , University of Iowa	2010
Hogan Family Scholarship , University of Iowa	2010

CONFERENCES AND SYMPOSIUMS

“Flying Vials of Bull Semen: Rockefeller Prentice and the Rise of the Artificial Insemination Industry, 1935-70,” Business History Beyond Boundaries, University of Glasgow and University of Tübingen International Summer School. Glasgow, Scotland. July 3-5, 2024.

“Disseminating the Dairy Regime: Science and Crisis in the Making of Georgia’s Dairy Industry, 1920-60,” Georgia Archives Symposium. Morrow, GA. April 6, 2024.

INVITED TALKS, INTERVIEWS, AND DISCUSSIONS

Talk, “Digging Up the Dirt: Soil Erosion in Georgia,” Environmental Science class at Clarke Central High School. Athens, GA. March 19, 2024.

Workshop, “Flying Vials of Bull Semen: Rockefeller Prentice and the Rise of the Artificial Insemination Industry in the U.S., 1935-70.” Dirty History Workshop. University of Georgia. February 2, 2024.

Podcast Interview, “Prisons and Farm Policy,” Interviewed on prisons, rural development and mass incarceration for episode of Left Coast Wisconsin. January 2021.

Radio Interview, “Mass Incarceration and the Vernon County Jail,” Interviewed for the program Conversations on 91.9 WDRT Viroqua. November 2020.

Talk, “Mass Incarceration in Vernon County,” Presentation in Viroqua, WI on article written for The La Crosse Independent. October 2020.

Discussion Panel, Participated in silvopasture workshop discussion panel hosted by University of Minnesota Extension, University of Wisconsin Extension, the Wallace Center Pasture Project, and the Savanna Institute. August 2018.

Discussion Panel, Participated in discussion panel on agriculture and land access hosted by Minnesota Land Access Initiative in St. Paul, MN. July 2015.

TEACHING AND RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

Teaching Assistant, University of Georgia 2022-2025
Courses: American History to 1865, American History since 1865

Soil Technician, University of Wisconsin-Madison 2017-2019
Description: Research assistant for PhD project in Soil Science

Research Assistance, Athens Film Society 2024
Description: Research assistance for images/ citations for the short educational film “The Founding of Athens and the Struggle for the Oconee River”

VOLUNTEER WORK

Spence Elementary School Garden (La Crosse, WI)
Volunteer – Grant Writing Assistance/ Garden help, 2021-2022

Incarcerated Workers Organizing Committee - Milwaukee Branch
Volunteer – Media Subcommittee/ Podcast production, October 2020 – May 2022

OTHER WORK EXPERIENCE

Farm Worker and Manager (overview), Wisconsin

2012-2022

- Worked as intern, laborer, manager, and farm business owner
- Experienced in organic vegetable, dairy, and livestock production
- Knowledgeable in ecological grazing practices and soil health
- Attended numerous farming conferences, workshops, field days, and educational courses
- Served on the board of a farmers' cooperative (2014-2015)

LANGUAGES

Spanish: Reading/ speaking (Intermediate)