

Imani Rose Carter

250 BALDWIN STREET, OFFICE #122, ATHENS, GA 30601

IMANI.CARTER@UGA.EDU

---

EDUCATION

MA in History

University of Georgia, Athens, GA

Currently Attending

BA in History

Radford University, Radford, VA

May 2019

---

RESEARCH INTEREST

Discrimination against African American women while serving in the Women's Army Corps during World War II.

---

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Graduate Teaching Assistant

Department of History, University of Georgia

August 2019-Present

- Serving as a grader for History 2112: United States History from 1865 during the Spring 2020 semester.
  - Served as a grader for History 2111: United States History to 1865 during the Fall 2019 semester.
-

RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

Summer Graduate Research Assistant

'Slavery at UGA' Project, University of Georgia

May 2020-Present

Undergraduate Research Assistant

Department of History, Radford University

August 2017-May 2019

- Performed various research tasks for faculty in the department, such as, assisted Dr. Sharon Roger Hepburn with her current research on the 102nd United States Colored Infantry during the American Civil War.

Intern

Special Collections and Archives, Radford University

January 2018-April 2018

- Investigated the lives of several Radford College alumni before, during, and after their stay at Radford, when it was an all-women's college during the first half of the twentieth century.
- Created a digital exhibit titled "A Past Uncovered: The Life of Addie Allen Brown, a Graduate of State Teachers College-Radford." Resources utilized were the U.S. Census, the 1915 Radnor yearbook, 1921 Lynchburg College's yearbook, and Virginia's Death Records.

Summer Undergraduate Research Fellow

Office of Undergraduate Research and Scholarship, Radford University

May 2018-August 2018

- Researched on the 370th Infantry Regiment of the 92nd Infantry Division during World War II under the mentorship of Dr. Sharon Roger Hepburn of Radford University. Research materials were gathered at National Archives-College Park and the Library of Congress' Manuscript Division.

---

HONORS

Member

April 2018-Present

Phi Alpha Theta National History Honor Society

Member

April 2018-Present

Pi Gamma Mu International Social Science Honor Society

---

PRESENTATIONS

“History’s Light on the Stories of Men from the Buffalo Division,” Office of Undergraduate Research and Scholarship’s Sixth Annual Summer Research Celebration, speaker. Radford, VA, 2018.

---

UNIVERSITY SERVICE

Moderator

February 2020

University of Georgia’s History Department’s Black History Month Book Club on ‘Educated in Tyranny: Slavery at Thomas Jefferson’s University’

Student Ambassador

October 2017-May 2019

College of Humanities and Behavioral Sciences, Radford University

History Tutor

September 2018-December 2018

Radford University

Note Taker

January 2017-December 2017

Radford University

Co-President and Co-Founder

December 2016-May 2017

Future Social Studies Teachers Club, Radford University

---

QUALIFICATION & SKILLS

Gained transcribing skills in Radford University’s Digital Archives course by transcribing Botetourt County, Virginia courthouse 18th century records and Civil War pension files for an American Civil War research company.